

culture kits for your library

Creativity of any kind is what makes us human. It is what brings us together, it is what creates and drives change.

Our vision at Hickory Museum of Art is to become a catalyst for a future where creative exploration, inclusivity, and community create the foundation for a more perfect world. As educators and optimists, we aim to inspire everyone to make the world a better place for every one of us.

Hickory Museum of Art lends cultural kits FREE of charge to libraries across the Unifour region (Catawba, Caldwell, Burke, and Alexander Counties). Our kits contain original pieces of art along with accompanying support materials for discussion and display.

Native American Kit | Hopi Kachina doll, mandella, art print, Navajo wool blanket, books, lesson plans, Cherokee basket, arrowheads, stone pipes, and ceramic canteen.

Folk Art Kit | contains original artwork, lesson plans, children's books, introduction to HMA's folk art (DVD), and artist biographies.

Latin America Kit | contains books, posters, Aztec calendar stones, artifacts, textiles, and more.

Hmong Kit | contains books, story-cloths, clothing, posters, a DVD and additional items about the Hmong cultures.

To reserve your kit, contact Ginny Zellmer at 828.327.8576 or gzellmer@hickoryart.org.

www.hickoryart.org/educators | 828.327.8576 | 243 3rd Ave NE, Hickory NC 28601